Chairperson's Business

HC49/19 Bloody Sunday Prosecutions

Following the announcement by the Public Prosecution Service (PPS) earlier in the day that one of the soldiers involved in Bloody Sunday would be prosecuted, the Chair permitted Councillor Duffy to address the Committee on behalf of Sinn Féin. He reminded Members of the sensitive nature of this issue and instructed Members to keep this in mind when addressing the Committee.

Councillor Duffy commended the way the Bloody Sunday families had conducted their campaign and shared their disappointment on the ruling of the PPS. She paid tribute to the dignity and solidarity shown by the families in response to the ruling and added that the British state must be held accountable. She offered the continued support of Sinn Féin to the families.

Councillor Tierney also commended the families and stated that this had been a difficult day. He recalled the events of the 15 June 2010 and stated that the impact of this ruling could not surpass the impact felt on that day. He expressed the continued support of the SDLP to the families and further commended the bravery, dignity and solidarity shown by them.

Councillor Donnelly concurred with the comments of the previous speakers. He stated that he was unsurprised by the ruling, and added that he felt the prosecuted soldier had been used as a scapegoat and would most likely never see the inside of a prison. He explained that the only person who had served time in prison in relation to Bloody Sunday was the Republican Martin Doherty. He expressed his continued support to the Bloody Sunday campaigners.

Alderman McClintock expressed her sympathy to the families of the 2 RUC Officers who were murdered 3 days before the events of Bloody Sunday, as she felt it would be wrong to look at the events of Bloody Sunday in isolation. She explained that she felt there had been attempts to brush over these events by the Saville enquiry and that the majority of all deaths in the troubles were committed at the hand of illegal terrorists.

Councillor Robinson referred to a quote from one of the soldiers involved who said that Bloody Sunday was a "job well done". He felt this highlighted the attitude of the troops on the ground and the British Government. He commended the families involved and stated that although the ruling was momentous it did not bring closure for them. He stated that the British establishment should be accountable for the events which had occurred.

HC62/19 Advice Services 2019/20 and Approval of Updated Advice Strategy 2018-2021

The Head of Community Development and Leisure presented the above report, previously circulated to Members. The purpose of the report was to seek Members' approval to extend funding allocations to current Advice Providers for the first three months of the 2019/20 financial year based on the allocations provided for 2018/19; to seek Members' approval to advertise for one Trial Provider during the 2019/20 year and to seek Members' approval for the updated Advice Strategy for 2018-21.

Councillor McGinley paid tribute to current providers of advice services in the area during these challenging times. He expressed his endorsement of the report and welcomed the advertisement for a trial provider for a six month period as he felt this would give prospective service providers an excellent opportunity to gain enough experience to reach the required standard to be considered for the 3 year Commissioning Agreement in April 2020.

Councillor Tierney welcomed the report and the support that a new provider would bring given the mounting pressure on the 3 current providers. He highlighted the level of support which would need to be provided to a trial provider to ensure they reach the required standard.

In response to requests from Councillor Tierney, the Head of Community Development and Leisure clarified that a public advertisement would be placed for commencement of a trial Service provider for a six month period during which Council Officers would provide continued support and advice under the new Advice Pro system due to the CARMA system being found to be prohibitive. He confirmed that if the required Bronze Award standard was reached the trial provider would be considered for a 3 year Commissioning agreement on completion of the trial period.

Councillor Gallagher suggested that focus should be redirected to opposing cuts to benefits such as PIP and DLA so that the need for advice services could be decreased.

Councillor Tierney reiterated the need for these services and questioned the time-line for the introduction of a trial service provider. He questioned if there would be a gap in service provided between the trial period and 3 year commissioning agreement.

The Head of Community Development and Leisure confirmed that he expected the trial service provider to have commenced work by 1 September 2019 with commencement of the new Commissioning Agreement around February 2020. He stated that he felt this 4/5 months was adequate for the provider to have built up sufficient evidence to bid for the Commissioning Agreement.

Alderman McClintock welcomed the report and stated that although the issue of benefits cuts needed to be politicised, the issues of support still needed to be addressed as soon as possible.

Councillor Donnelly urged Council to be proactive in contacting advice groups which have no affiliation with Council in relation to this opportunity. He also raised issues surrounding vulnerable persons who had been taken advantage of by persons who advertise on social media for the filling in of benefit forms and charge extortionate prices.

Alderman Hussey concurred with comments by Councillor Donnelly surrounding charges for form filling. He also highlighted the need for continuity of service between the trial advice service period and the 3 year commissioning agreement.

In response to questions from Alderman Hussey, the Head of Community Development and Leisure confirmed that if the trial provider secured the Commissioning Agreement, all four advice providers would receive funding from the same allocation of funds from the Department for Communities. He confirmed that the level of funding would be allocated after analysis of the numbers of contacts and clients receiving advice during the trial period.

The Committee

Recommended That Members (i)
approve the allocation of £176,324 to the three advice providers in respect of current Generalist Advice Services Provision for the first three months of the 2019/20 financial year subject to confirmation from the Department for Communities; (ii) approve an allocation of £12,000 towards the total cost for one new Trial Provider and; (iii) approve the updated Advice Strategy for 2018-21.

Councillor McGinley expressed his endorsement of the report.

Councillor Tierney recalled that a similar report had been presented to the Committee last year. He expressed concern that Council was only being allocated these monies at the end of the financial year and felt that additional funding should be requested from the Department of Communities.

The Head of Community Development and Leisure presented the above report for information, which had been previously circulated to Members. The purpose of the report was to update Members on proposals for Melvin Arena to meet the criteria of IFA's Championship/Premier Intermediate League.

Councillor Gallagher informed the Committee that during a recent meeting, at which he had been in attendance, a former planner had advised that the short term proposal would not require planning permission on the grounds of permitted development. He further explained that he had consulted with the Lead Legal Services Officer who had advised that this was not the case and that the short – term proposal did not meet the criteria to qualify for permitted development. Councillor Gallagher stated that clear definitive answers were required in relation to this. He also raised concerns that language used within the report such as the term "most likely" was not definitive enough.

Councillor P Kelly stated that Councillors and Officers needed to be careful about comments made surrounding planning permission following indications that Strabane Athletic FC were commencing a legal process.

Alderman Hussey referred to Paragraphs 3.1 and 3.4 within the report and stated that he felt it was clear that the proposal could not move forward. He highlighted the difference in provision of this type of facility from the Derry City to the Strabane areas and felt that this may be an issue for some stakeholders.

Councillor Tierney also noted concerns in the type of language used within Paragraph 3.1 in the report.

In response, the Head of Community Development and Leisure clarified that the long-term proposal definitely needed planning permission. In relation to the short-term proposal he advised that no plans had been submitted which could be presented to the Planning department for consideration and this was the reason for the non-definitive language.

Councillor Gallagher reiterated the need for Councillors as public representatives to be able to provide reliable information to stakeholders.

Councillor R McHugh suggested that Council seek a Planning opinion on the proposal.

Councillor Tierney expressed his support for this suggestion, but noted that Planning consideration could not be sought without submitted plans.

Councillor R McHugh suggested this was an opportunity for Strabane Athletic Football Club to compile the short-term proposal in writing for consideration by the planning service.

The Committee

Recommended that Members note the content of the report.
